

NORTH EAST INDIA WOMEN INITIATIVE FOR PEACE Newsletter

Volume 1 No 3 Issue September 2010

For more than a century women and women's organisations and movements have mobilised support for social empowerment, economic justice, democracy, human rights and conflict prevention. Women groups in Northeast India have developed many a powerful programme of direct, non-violent, action designed to confront the fire of insurgency that has for long engulfed this strategic region since the late 1940s. In India's northeast, women have always played a major role in many peace and social movements. However, most of their actions remain in "protest" form and after the initial action dies down, nothing much happens. We, the women of Northeast India need to make ourselves understand the issues of war, conflict, peace. Only through our joint, continued and persistent efforts peace would one day follow.

We are also delighted to share the successful completion on 7th August 2010 at Bosco Reachout in Guwahati, Assam our second Consultation on Northeast India Women Initiative for Peace. Please log on to <http://neiwip.blogspot.com/p/photos.html> for the update on this along with pictures and media coverage <http://neiwip.blogspot.com/p/media-coverage.html>

Our office is also organising a Conference on Armed Forces Special Powers Act to be held on 8 September 2010 at Conference Hall No 1, India International Centre, 40 Max Mueller Marg, New Delhi 110003 from 9 am to 5 pm. For more details, log on to <http://neiwip.blogspot.com/p/events.html>

Here is the Volume 1 No 3, September 2010 issue newsletter, positive news of the last two months from Northeast India and rest of the world to renew our hopes and strengthen our efforts to work towards peace making.

With kind regards,

News on Women and Peace Work from Northeast India for months of July and August 2010

Northeast's women take initiative for peace

Women of the northeast region are joining hands for bringing peace and ensure justice and political rights in a region rocked by decades of conflict under the aegis of 'North-East India Women Initiative for Peace'. In India's northeast, women traditionally play a major role in society, yet they have not found their legitimate place at the negotiation table when it comes to resolving the reasons for the many conflicts in the region. The Northeast India Women's Initiative for Peace second consultative conclave was held at the Don Bosco Reach Out Centre in Guwahati to discuss alternative strategies to end violence here. Thangjam Manorama Memorial Charitable Trust

Thangjam Manorama was fondly remembered on her 6th death anniversary today in a simple but impressive function at her birth-place of Bamon Kampu, Imphal East. The memorial function was jointly organised by the Thangjam Manorama Memorial Charitable Trust and the Apunba Lup. Speaking at the function, social worker Thounaojam Iboyaima stressed on the need for different organisations to shed their differences and struggle unitedly when it comes to major issues confronting the State. Noting that each and every organisation have their own objectives and principles, Iboyaima, nevertheless, asserted that all the organisations need to stand united and struggle together in times of major issues.
